First Issue - More to Come

This is the first issue of our Newsletter—we hope to have many more for you.

We don't yet know how frequently we will print the newsletter, and we hope you can help us with that. Depending upon the quantity of news and information, we could issue semiannually, quarterly, monthly, or as needed.

Ideas and suggestions are welcome.

Do you want to contribute?

Maybe write a column?

How about a Christmas Light Decoration contest? We could have the Board act as judges and do it before Christmas.

What about a drawing contest for the children?

The Holidays are Fast Approaching—Get Ready. Here's a link to Christmas Tree Farms in the Austin Area

Safety Today

Practice Safety—for your Home, for your Children, for yourself, and for our neighborhood.

Reminders about items we all know, but sometimes forget to practice:

Keep your dog on a leash when not in your home or in your fenced yard.

Remind your children to wear helmets when bicycling or skateboarding.

Keep your house locked; don't leave your keys in your vehicle.

Remember to check the batteries in your smoke detectors.

Be a good neighbor and look out for each other.

Be Aware—Keep Informed!

Unlicensed motorized vehicles should not be driven on our streets, and especially should not be operated by someone without a driver's license. You can be issued a ticket by law enforcement officers.

There are concerns about Sex Offenders that live near The Lookout. If you would like to look up registered sex offenders living in the area, please search the Sex Offender Registry using the Texas DPS website below. To find people in the area, perform an "Address Only" search on a single city or zip code.
